Squad Leader

January 2012 - January 2013 (1 year 1 month)

Carried out mission objectives and ensured that each soldier under my command understood their role in that mission, that they carried out their duties to the best of their abilities.

Compiled reports deliverable to superior officers about the unit's operations in the field each time the squad went on missions. Reports must contain detailed accounts of mission activity, as well as the conduct of the squad and my personal assessments of each soldier's performance. These reports were used in determining promotions for soldiers and awards.

Responsible for ensuring all unit equipment is maintained in working order. This included any vehicles that were under the unit's care. Submitted work orders for repairs of all vehicles and ensure that each soldier's weapons and other equipment were within operational parameters.

Mission Commander – Planned and Implement missions, ensured that soldiers in my care were properly trained and prepared for missions.

Trained soldier to standard to ensure they are properly prepared for all missions.

Tracked performance and administer performance evaluation counseling to soldiers and subordinates.
